2. Withdrawal of the Company's members from the Company resulting in the situation when the Company does not have any more members as well as withdrawal of the sole member of the Company from the Company shall not be permitted.
3. If any of the members withdraws from the Company, its membership interest shall be transferred to the Company. The Company shall pay to the member of the Company who has submitted a statement for withdrawal from the Company the actual value of its share in the charter capital of the Company determined on the basis of the financial statements of the Company for the last reporting period preceding the day of submission of the application for withdrawal from the Company, or with the consent of this member to give him/her property of the same value in kind or in case of incomplete payment of his/her membership interest in the charter capital of the Company the actual value of the paid part of the membership interest.
4. The Company shall pay to the member of the Company the actual value of his/her share or part of the share in the charter capital of the Company or give him/her property of the same value in kind within three months from the date of occurrence of the respective obligation.

A decision to include provisions into the Company's Charter regarding an establishment of another term or payment procedure shall be taken by all the Company's members unanimously. Exclusion of these provisions from the Charter shall be effected by a resolution of the General Meeting of Members of the Company taken by all the members of the Company unanimously.

5. The share or part of the share shall be transferred to the Company from the date of receipt by the Company of an application for withdrawal from the Company.

6. Withdrawal of a member of the Company from the Company shall not exempt him/her from the obligation to the Company to make a contribution into the property of the Company, arising before the submission of statements declaring his/her withdrawal from the Company.

Article 9 EXPULSION OF A COMPANY MEMBER FROM THE COMPANY

1. Members of the Company, possessing in the aggregate no less than ten percent of the charter capital of the Company, shall be entitled to demand in court the expulsion from the Company of a member who grossly violates his/her obligations or by his/her actions (omissions) makes the Company's activity impossible or significantly hinders it.

Article 10 MAINTAINING A LIST OF COMPANY MEMBERS

1. The Company shall maintain a list of the Company's members, specifying information on each member of the Company, the amount of his/her membership interest in the charter capital of the Company and its payment, as well as the amount of shares owned by the Company, dates of their transfer to the Company or acquisition by the Company.

The Company shall ensure maintenance and storage of the list of the Company's members in accordance with the requirements of the Federal law "On Limited Liability Companies".

2. The General Director of the Company shall ensure that information about the Company's members and their shares or parts of shares in the Company's charter capital, shares or parts of shares owned by the Company, correspond to the information contained in the Unified State Register of Legal Entities and notarially certified transactions on the transfer of shares in the Company's charter capital, which became known to the Company.

3. Each member of the Company shall inform the Company in a timely manner about changes in information about his/her name, place of residence or location, as well as information about his/her shares in the charter capital of the Company. If the company's member fails to provide information about changes in his/her personal information, the Company shall not be liable for any losses incurred in this regard.

4. The Company and members of the Company who have not notified the Company on any change in relevant data may not refer to incompliance of the data specified in the list of Company's members with the data contained in the Unified State Register of Legal Entities, in relations with third parties acting only relying upon the data specified in the list of Company's members.

5. In the event of any disputes concerning the incompliance of the data specified in the list of the Company's members with the data contained in the Unified State Register of Legal Entities, the right to a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company shall be established on the basis of the data contained in the Unified State Register of Legal Entities.

In the event of any disputes concerning unreliability of the data on title to a share or a part of a share, contained in the Uniform State Register of Legal Entities, the title to a share or a part of a share shall be established on the basis of the contract or other document confirming acquisition of the title to a share or a part of a share.

Chapter III. Charter Capital of the Company Property and profit of the Company

Article 11 CHARTER CAPITAL OF THE COMPANY

1. The charter capital of the Company shall consist of the nominal value of shares in the Company which has been acquired by members. The charter capital of the Company shall determine the minimum amount of the property guaranteeing interests of its lenders.

The charter capital of the Company amounts to 60,000,000 (sixty million) Russian rubles.

2. The fall due for payment of the charter capital may not exceed four months from the date of state registration of the Company.

3. Payment for membership interests in the charter capital of the Company may be made in money, securities, other property and non-property rights or any other rights that have a monetary value.

4. Monetary evaluation of property contributed as payment for shares in the charter capital of the Company shall be approved by the resolution of the General Meeting of Members of the Company adopted by all the members of the Company unanimously.

If the nominal value or increase of the nominal value of the membership interest in the Company's charter capital paid for by non-monetary funds exceeds 20,000 (twenty thousand) rubles, an independent appraiser shall be engaged to determine the value of this property. The nominal value or increase of the nominal value of the Company's membership interest paid for by such non-monetary funds may not exceed the amount of appraisal of the said property determined by an independent appraiser.

5. The charter capital of the Company may be increased or decreased.

The charter capital of the Company may be increased at the expense of the Company's property and/or through additional contributions of the Company's members, and/or through contributions of third parties admitted to the Company. An increase in the charter capital of the Company shall be allowed only after it has been fully paid up.

The charter capital of the Company may be reduced by reducing the nominal value of the shares of all the Company's members in the charter capital of the Company and/or by redemption of the shares owned by the Company.

Article 12 INCREASE OF THE COMPANY'S CHARTER CAPITAL AT THE EXPENSE OF THE PROPERTY

1. The charter capital of the Company may be increased at the expense of its property by resolution of the General Meeting of Members of the Company taken by all the members of the Company unanimously.

A resolution to increase the charter capital of the Company at the expense of the Company's property may be made only on the basis of the Company's accounting statements for the year preceding the year in which such a decision was made.

2. The amount by which the charter capital of the Company is increased at the expense of the Company's property shall not exceed the difference between the value of the Company's net assets and the amount of the charter capital and the reserve fund of the Company.

3. When the charter capital of the Company is increased in accordance with this Article, the nominal value of the membership interests of all members of the Company shall increase proportionally without changing the amount of their shares.

Article 13 INCREASE OF THE CHARTER CAPITAL OF THE COMPANY THROUGH ADDITIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE COMPANY'S MEMBERS AND THROUGH CONTRIBUTIONS OF THIRD PARTIES ADMITTED TO THE COMPANY

1. The General Meeting of Members of the Company may unanimously adopt a resolution to increase the charter capital of the Company through additional contributions by the Company's members. Such resolution shall determine the total value of additional contributions, as well as establish a single ratio for all members of the Company between the value of the additional contribution of a member of the Company and the amount by which the nominal value of its membership interest increases. The said ratio is established on the basis that the nominal value of the membership interest may increase by an amount equal to or less than the value of its additional contribution.

Each member of the Company shall be entitled to make an additional contribution not exceeding the part of the total value of additional contributions, in proportion to the amount of his/her membership interest in the charter capital. Additional contributions may be made by members of the Company within two months from the date of adoption by the General Meeting of Members of the Company of the resolution to increase the charter capital of the Company through additional contributions by members of the Company, unless another term is set by resolution of the General Meeting of Members of the Company.

Not later than one month from the date of expiration of the deadline for making additional contributions, the General Meeting of Members of the Company shall adopt a resolution on approval of the results of making additional contributions by the members of the Company and on introducing amendments to the Charter of the Company related to the increase of the charter capital of the Company. In this case, the nominal value of the share of each member of the Company who has made an additional contribution shall be increased in accordance with the ratio specified in paragraph one of this clause.

2. The General Meeting of Members of the Company may decide to increase its charter capital on the basis of an application of a member of the Company (applications of members of the Company) for additional contribution and/or an application of a third party (applications of third parties) for its admission to the Company and contribution. Such resolution shall be taken by all members of the Company unanimously.

The application of a member of the Company and the application of a third party shall specify the amount and composition of the contribution, the order and term of its contribution, as well as the amount of the membership interest which the member or third party would like to have in the charter capital of the Company. The application may also specify other conditions for making contributions and admitting to the Company.

Simultaneously with the resolution to increase the charter capital of the Company at the request of a member of the Company or statements of members of making their additional contribution, the decision to amend the Charter of the Company in connection with the increase of the charter capital of the Company, as well as the decision to increase the nominal value of a share or shares of the members that have submitted an application for making additional contribution, and, if necessary, the resolution to change the amounts of membership interests of members of the Company shall be adopted. Such resolutions shall be taken by all members of the Company unanimously. At the same time, the nominal value of the share of each member of the Company that has submitted an application for making an additional contribution is increased by an amount equal to or less than the value of its additional contribution.

Simultaneously with the resolution to increase the charter capital of the Company on the basis of an application of a third party or applications of third parties to admit him/her or them to the Company and to make a contribution, decisions on the admittance of him/her or them to the Company, on introducing amendments to the Charter of the Company in connection with the increase of the charter capital of the Company, on determining the nominal value and amount of the share or shares of third parties, as well as on changing the amount of membership interests of the Company's members shall be adopted. Such resolutions shall be taken by all members of the Company unanimously. The nominal value of the membership interest acquired by each third party admitted to the Company shall not exceed the value of its contribution.

Additional contributions by the Company's members and third party contributions shall be made not later than within 6 (six) months from the date of adoption by the General Meeting of Members of the Company of the resolutions provided for in this paragraph.

3. In the event of failure to comply with the terms stipulated in Sub-Clause 3, Clause 1, Sub-Clause 5, Clause 2 and Clause 2.1 of Article 19 of the Federal law "On Limited Liability Companies", the increase of the charter capital shall be deemed to have failed.

If increase of the charter capital of the Company fails, the Company shall within a reasonable time period to return to the Company's members and third parties who made their contributions with money, their contributions and if the contributions are not returned within the specified term, shall also pay interest in accordance with such procedure and within such terms as stipulated in article 395 of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation.

Those Company's members and third parties who made their contributions in the non-monetary terms shall be entitled to recover their contributions from the Company within a reasonable time period and if the contributions are not returned by the Company within the specified term, the Company will also pay missed profit due to impossibility to use the property provided as contributions.

Article 14 REDUCTION OF CHARTER CAPITAL

1. The Company may and in cases prescribed by the Federal law "On Limited Liability Companies" shall reduce its charter capital.

The charter capital of the Company may be reduced by reducing the nominal value of the shares of all the Company's members in the charter capital of the Company and/or by redemption of the shares owned by the Company.

The resolution to reduce the charter capital of the Company shall be taken by the General Meeting of Members of the Company unanimously by all the members of the Company.

The Company may not reduce its charter capital if as a result of such reduction the amount thereof becomes less than the minimum amount of the charter capital as determined in accordance with the Federal law "On Limited Liability Companies" as of the date of submission of documents for state registration of relevant amendments to the Charter of the Company or as of the date of submission by the Company acting on the basis of the standard charter of documents for state registration of relevant amendments to the Unified State Register of Legal Entities and in cases when the Company shall reduce its charter capital in accordance with the Federal law "On Limited Liability Companies", as of the date of state registration of the Company.

Reduction of the charter capital of the Company through reduction of the nominal value of shares of all the Company's members shall be effected with maintenance of amounts of shares of all the Company's members.

2. Within 3 (three) business days of the resolution to reduce the Company's charter capital, the Company shall notify the body, which carries out the State registration of legal entities of such a decision and twice (once a month) place the notification of reduction of the Company's charter capital in the mass media which usually publish information on state registration of legal entities.

Article 15 CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE COMPANY'S PROPERTY

1. Members of the Company shall make contributions to the Company's property by resolution of the General Meeting of Members of the Company.

The resolution of the General Meeting of Members of the Company on making contributions to the Company's property may be adopted unanimously by all the members of the Company.

2. Contributions to the Company's property may be made by all or some of the Company's members in proportion to or disproportionately to their shares in the charter capital of the Company.

3. Contributions to the Company's property may be made in money, securities, other property and non-property rights or any other rights that have a monetary value.

4. Contributions to the Company's property shall not change the amount and nominal value of membership interests of the Company's members in the charter capital of the Company.

Article 16 DISTRIBUTION OF THE COMPANY'S PROFIT AMONG THE COMPANY'S MEMBERS

1. The Company shall be entitled to decide on the distribution of its net profit among the Company's members on a quarterly, half-yearly or annual basis. The resolution to determine a portion of the Company's profit distributed among the Company's members shall be taken by the General Meeting of the Members of the Company.

2. A portion of the Company's profit intended for distribution among its members is distributed in proportion to their membership interests in the charter capital of the Company.

3. Cases in which the Company shall not be entitled to make a decision on distribution of its profits among the Company's members shall be determined in accordance with the Federal law "On Limited Liability Companies".

Article 17 FUNDS

1. The Company shall create a reserve fund in the amount of 5% (five per cent) of its charter capital.

2. The Reserve fund of the Company shall be formed through compulsory annual allocations until it reaches the amount as specified by this Charter. The amount of annual allocations may not be less than 5% (five per cent) of net profit until it reaches the amount as specified by this Charter.

The Reserve fund is intended to cover losses of the Company and restore the Company's own working capital deficit.

Chapter IV Transfer of a member's share (part of a share) in the Company's charter capital to another person Pledge of share.

Article 18 TRANSFER OF A SHARE (PART OF A SHARE) OF A COMPANY'S MEMBER TO OTHER COMPANY'S MEMBERS AND THIRD PARTIES.

1. A Company's member shall be entitled to sell or otherwise alienate its share or part of the share in the charter capital of the Company to one or more members of the Company. The consent of the Company or other members of the Company to such transaction is not required.

Sale or other alienation of a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Bank to third parties shall be allowed subject to the requirements stipulated by the Federal law "On Limited Liability Companies".

2. A membership interest may be alienated until it is fully paid only to the extent that it has already been paid.

3. Members of the Company shall enjoy the preemptive right to purchase a share or part of a share of a Company's member at the offer price to a third party in proportion to the shares they already hold. The above preferential rights to purchase a share or part of a share in the Company's charter capital may not be assigned.

4. A member of the Company intending to sell its share or part of its share in the charter capital of the Company to a third party shall notify in writing the other members of the Company and the Company itself by sending through the Company, at its own expense, a notarized offer addressed to these persons and containing an indication of the price and other sales conditions. An offer to sell a share or a part of a share in the charter capital of the Company shall be deemed received by all members of the Company at the moment of its receipt by the Company. In this case, it may be accepted by a person who is a member of the Company at the time of acceptance. An offer shall be deemed not received if not later than the date of its receipt by the Company, a member of the Company receives a notice of its withdrawal. The withdrawal of an offer to sell a share or a part of a share after its receipt by the Company shall be allowed only with the consent of all the Company's members. Members of the Company shall be entitled to exercise their preemptive right to purchase a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company within 30 (thirty) days from the date of receipt of the offer by the Company.

5. The preemptive right to purchase a share or part of a share in the Company's charter capital from a member shall terminate on the day:

- of submission of a written application to waive this preferential right in an order envisaged by this paragraph;

- of expiration of this preemptive right.

Statements of members of the Company on refusal of the preferential right of purchase of a share or a part of a share shall be delivered to the Company before expiration of term of exercise of the specified preferential right established in accordance with the paragraph 4 of this Article.

The authenticity of the signature on the statement of the Company's member or the Company on refusal to use the preferential right of purchase of a share or a part of a share in the charter capital of the Company shall be certified by a notary.

6. If within 30 (thirty) days from the date of receipt of the offer by the Company, the Company's members do not exercise their preemptive right to purchase a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company offered for sale, including in case of refusal by some members of the Company of their preemptive right to purchase a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company, the remaining share or part of a share may be sold to a third party at a price that is not lower than the price established in the offer for the Company's members and on the terms and conditions that were communicated to the Company and its members.

7. The transaction aimed at alienation of a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company requires notarization in the form of a single document signed by both parties.

Failure to comply with the notarial form of the said transaction shall entail the invalidity. The notarial certification is not required in cases stipulated by the Federal law "On Limited Liability Companies".

8. A share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company shall be transferred to its purchaser upon making the relevant entry in the Unified State Register of Legal Entities, except in certain circumstances specified under the Federal law "On Limited Liability Companies". Entering in the Uniform State Register of Legal Entities of the record about transition of a share or a part of a share in the charter capital of the Company in the cases where there is no need in the notarial certificate of the transaction aimed at alienation of a share or a part of a share in the charter capital of the Company, shall be carried out on the basis of entitling documents.

The purchaser of a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company will obtain all rights and obligations of a Company's member which arose before execution of the transaction aimed at alienation of a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company or before occurrence of another ground for transfer thereof other than rights and obligations mentioned in paragraph 2 of clause 2 of Article 8 and paragraph 2 of clause 2 of Article 9 of the Federal law "On Limited Liability Companies". A member of the Company who alienated its share or part of its share in the charter capital of the Company will bear jointly with the purchaser the obligation before the Company to make a contribution into property arising before execution of the transaction aimed at alienation of a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company.

After the notarial certificate of the transaction aimed at alienation of a share or a part of a share in the charter capital of the Company, or in the cases where there is no need in the notarial certificate, upon entering respective amendments in the Unified State Register of Legal Entities transition of a share or a share part can be challenged only judicially by a claim presentation in arbitration court.

9. When selling a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company in violation of a preemptive right to purchase a share or part of a share, any member or members of the Company within 3 (three) months from the date when the member or members of the Company knew or should have known about such violation, shall be entitled to petition a court that the rights and obligations of the purchaser be transferred to them.

10. Membership interests in the charter capital of the Company shall be transferred to inheritors of citizens or legal successors of legal entities that were members of the Company, and shall be distributed among the members of the legal entity being liquidated that was a member of the Company only upon consent of the other members of the Company.

The consent of the Company's members to the transfer of a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company to inheritors or legal successors or to the distribution of a share among the members of a legal entity being liquidated shall be deemed received if within 30 (thirty) days from the date of notification sent to the members of the Company the written consent of all the Company's members has been received or no written refusal of consent has been received from any of the Company's members.

11. When a share or part of a share in the charter capital of the Company is sold from public auction, the rights and obligations of a member of the Company for such share or part of a share shall be transferred with the consent of the Company's members.
